Easton, Pa., Jan. 22—Samuel Hinckline, a wealthy truck farmer residing at Roxburg, N. J., had his fortune told by a woman yesterday. She predicted that Hinckline would die before 9 o'clock at night. He went home and told his wife what the palmist had said. They had a good laugh over the matter and thought no more about it. At 8:45 o'clock Hinckline fell over dead.

FOOD VS. DRUGS.

A DRUG MAN'S WISDOM THAT COUNTS.

It's a shrewd man who while in the drug business, learns that although drugs are all right in their place, the use of proper food will make medicine unnecessary in the majority of cases.

"Traveling through various towns," writes a drug salesman from Lancaster, Pa., "drinking different waters to which I was not accustomed, eating strangely prepared meals at irregular hours, I contracted dyspepsia, accompanied by nervousness, loss of sleep and consequently loss of energy. I often had the 'blues,' that indescribably tough feeling which makes one look on the dark side of every picture, and see the shadows of life rather than the substance, imagine the thousand calamities that were never in existence, and so render life almost unbearable. Many thousands of men under the circumstances would have resorted to stimulation from drugs or liquor.

"I happened to read an article on Grape Nuts about a case similar to my own and determined to give the food a trial. It agreed with me from the start and the miserable distress that usually came after eating did not manifest itself when I ate Grape Nuts. I asked for this food at every hotel at which I stopped and made it the principal part of my meal. My stomach soon got so that I could eat any kind of rich food in connection with Grape Nuts without it distressing me. My dyspepsia and nervousness disappeared and life looked bright and happy once more. I am now well, healthy, happy and able to work 16 hours out of the 24 and can sleep like a healthy child the other eight hours.

"My family soon tires of mushy cereals but we never tire of Grape Nuts. The children thrive on it and enjoy it. You may publish this if you think it will encourage others to try Grape Nuts instead of medicine or spirituous remedies that stimulate the system for a time but do not build it up." Name given by Postum Cereal Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

MUCH INTEREST

THE CIRCUIT JUDGESHIP RACE WILL BE AN IMPORTANT ONE.

A great deal of interest is being taken in the race for the Democratic circuit judgeship nomination in McCracken and Marshall counties. Three of those who are mentioned for the nomination decline to state whether they will enter or not, which leaves the impression that they are at least thinking of it.

County Judge Lightfoot and Attorney John G. Miller have already announced and friends of Judge J. W. Bloomfield, Judge Wm. M. Reed and Judge James Campbell are daily urging them to enter the contest for the nomination. Should any of the latter three enter it would be greatly complicated the situation, and should all of them enter, it would make the hottest race ever witnessed in the judicial district for such a nomination.
